KATTE SHABUSHABU

DESCRIPTION

Shabu-shabu, the onomatopoeic name given to the Japanese art of tabletop hotpot cooking, similar to sukiyaki but with a focus on the savoury over the sweet in taste. There are plenty of Hong Kong hotpot restaurant options about, but Katte Shabushabu in Causeway Bay helps overcome the usual simmering (forgive us) conflicts that arise when you eat this way – here each guest gets an individual hotpot so you don't have to compromise on soup stock decisions or leave your vegetarian friends out in the cold. This buzzing Japanese restaurant on the ground floor of Vienna Mansion down Paterson Street books out – so book up!

Location: Vienna Mansion, 55 Paterson St, East Point, Hong Kong

AL FORNO

www.alforno.hk.com

DESCRIPTION

Al Forno Pizzeria offers both traditional Italian and creative New World Pizzas. Their 32-seater space offers a cozy, warm ambience and a spacious dining experience for family and friends. With their own specialised recipe, all their pizzas are freshly made in-house and baked in their remarkable brick fire oven.

BOND

BOND
RESTAURANT & BAR

DESCRIPTION

BOND recently opened its doors May 2016. Bond serves casual yet comforting food in Tai Hang. Quickly securing its presence as the neighbourhood hangout, the restaurant will keep you wanting to come back for their signature Table Side Cheese Spaghetti cooked in a 24 Month Parmesan Cheese Wheel, other varieties of Homemade Pastas, French Onion Soup, and their extremely juicy Baby Back Ribs! Their Happy Hour is also one of the best in town, starting from 5 ending at 10, heavy drinkers will definitely get their moneys worth! Other than their sweet deal on food and drinks, BOND has two balconies where diners can enjoy al fresco dining in the quaint neighbourhood of Tai Hang.

SHIMO

DESCRIPTION

Shimo, meaning winter in traditional Japan, serves up Hong Kong's best Sukiyaki and Shabu Shabu in Hong Kong. Perfect for the winter, but also just as comforting during hotter months. The restaurant chef has worked for Nadamans Island Shangrila for 15 years before helping this kitchen. The space also offers two VIP Tatami rooms that can fit up to 10 and 6 people respectively.

GYOTAKU

DESCRIPTION

Gyotaku is conveniently located in the heart of Central at 11 Stanley Street, and has been operating since 2010. Gyotaku serves traditional Japanese food with a flare, for example wagyu beef rolls topped with white truffle. You can also savor a perfect piece of fatty tuna sushi over the counter. The restaurant is open 6 days a week, and serves one of the best priced sake menus in town!
